

Universal Stainless President and CEO Adopts 10b5-1 Trading Plan

BRIDGEVILLE, Pa., Sept. 27, 2006 -- Universal Stainless & Alloy Products, Inc. (Nasdaq:USAP) today announced that Clarence M. McAninch, President and Chief Executive Officer, has adopted a pre-arranged, non-discretionary stock trading plan to sell a portion of his currently owned Company stock systematically over time as part of his individual long-term strategy for asset diversification and estate planning. The stock trading plan was adopted in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company's policies regarding stock transactions by insiders.

Rule 10b5-1 allows corporate officers and directors to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they are not in possession of material, non-public information. Using these plans, insiders can gradually diversify their investment portfolios, by spreading stock trades out over an extended period of time to reduce any market impact, while avoiding concerns about the initiation of stock transactions when in possession of material non-public information.

Subject to the terms of the plan, Mr. McAninch may sell up to 50,000 shares of the Company's stock over a period of three months.

The transactions under this plan will commence no earlier than October 1, 2006 and will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
