Universal Stainless to Ring the Nasdaq Stock Market Closing Bell on October 8th to Mark 20th Anniversary

BRIDGEVILLE, Pa., Oct. 6, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Universal Stainless & Alloy Products, Inc. (Nasdaq:USAP) announced today that in celebration of the Company's 20th anniversary, Dennis Oates, Chairman, President and CEO, will ring The Nasdaq Stock Market Closing Bell. The Company is also marking its 20th year as a Nasdaq-listed company.

The Closing Bell Ceremony will take place on Wednesday, October 8, 2014, from 3:45 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. (Eastern) and can be viewed live online at <https://new.livestream.com/nasdaq/live>.

Dennis Oates commented: "This is an exciting milestone for our Company. Universal Stainless was started by resurrecting a single defunct steel mill in Bridgeville, PA, in 1994. I commend all our employees whose contributions over the years enabled us to move forward in our strategy and, more recently, to accelerate our transformation into a growth-driven, customer-focused enterprise, able to offer technologically advanced specialty alloys to our customers."

Forward-Looking Information Safe Harbor

Except for historical information contained herein, the statements in this release are forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the "safe harbor" provision of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to differ materially from forecasted results. Those risks include, among others, the concentrated nature of the Company's customer base to date and the Company's dependence on its significant customers; the receipt, pricing and timing of future customer orders; changes in product mix; the limited number of raw material and energy suppliers and significant fluctuations that may occur in raw material and energy prices; risks related to property, plant and equipment, including the Company's reliance on the continuing operation of critical manufacturing equipment; risks associated with labor matters; the Company's ongoing requirement for continued compliance with laws and regulations, including applicable safety and environmental regulations; the ultimate outcome of the Company's current and future litigation and matters; risks related to acquisitions that the Company may make; and the impact of various economic, credit and market risk uncertainties. Many of these factors are not within the Company's control and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to be materially different from any future performance suggested herein. Any unfavorable change in the foregoing or other factors could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, the Company operates in an industry sector where securities values may be volatile and may be influenced by economic and other factors beyond the Company's control. Certain of these risks and other risks are described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) over the last 12 months, copies of which are available from the SEC or may be obtained upon request from the Company.
